Layout options

We offer different layout options for each space depending on the type of event. Here you will find the most common formats, with a brief description of how each one is organized and what type of occasion it might be suitable for.

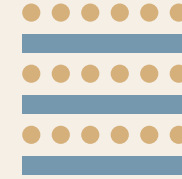

A quick guide to help you imagine what your event could be like.

Banquet

Round tables with chairs around them.

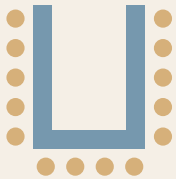

IDEAL FOR: celebrations, corporate lunches, or family gatherings where conversation and toasts take center stage.

School

Tables in rows, all facing a focal point.

IDEAL FOR: training sessions, workshops, or meetings where attention, concentration and space for taking notes are required.

U

Tables arranged in a "U" shape, leaving an empty space in the center.

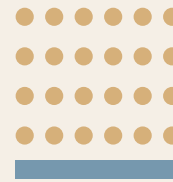

IDEAL FOR: participatory meetings, team sessions or presentations with an exchange of ideas.

Cocktail

Space without formal tables, with bars or high tables to move around freely.

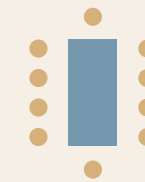

IDEAL FOR: after-work events, networking, or celebrations where the important thing is to chat and enjoy yourself.

Theater

Chairs in rows, all facing the same point.

IDEAL FOR: conferences, presentations or talks where the focus is on the stage.

Imperial

A large central table surrounded by chairs.

IDEAL FOR: executive meetings, private dinners, or more formal and direct business meetings.

El Alto

Any celebration, presentation, meeting, workshop or gathering you can imagine is possible here.

El Alto is a large and bright venue with an interior that can be tailored to all kinds of events. It has a separate entrance and a terrace with spectacular views of Sant Cugat. Also, it is connected to the corporate rooms through a private staircase, creating an exclusive, practical, and versatile environment.

A flexible space to transform any idea into a memorable experience.
